Enhance Flavor - From a hint of meat to intense protein notes, add savory and "slow roasted" flavor to products that need that extra kick!

Improve Nutrition - Answer consumer demand for high protein diets by giving your products a boost of high protein ingredients.

Increase Performance - Product performance and flavor are consistent over entire shelf-life. A reliable, consistent product reduces lost production time compared to wet meats.

Save Money - Lower freight, storage, and handling costs.

- Easy to rehydrate
- Excellent shelf life stability
- Stabilized with natural flavoring or antioxidants
- Available with or without additives
- Packaged in fifty-pound polyethylene-lined fiber cartons
- Available in powder form and a variety of chunk sizes
- No need to wait for product to thaw or cook
